Fiqh of Purification (Taharah)

by Dr. Sheikh Aslam Abu Ismaeel

Graduate from the Shariah Faculty of Madinah University

Workshop Description: Ever wondered, 'did I just break my wudu, can I pray in these clothes, will Allah accept my worship if I have this on me?'

Taharah, purification, is an essential step for Prayer, Fasting, Haj, marriage life and so much more in Islam. That is why every Muslim, male, female, young and old, need to know their Taharah! Not a day passes by except we need the knowledge of Islamic way of purification (Taharah). This day long Islamic intensive course, takes you through the Fiqh (understanding) of Taharah for every aspect of your Islamic worship. Not only do you empower yourself with this knowledge, but even you can help provide answers to so many others too. Every fundamental aspect of Taharah will be presented with evidence from the Quran and authentic Hadith such that your heart fills with the love for Allah for His complete care and guidance in every walk of life! Spend a day attending this course, and master purification for a life time! Fully researched and referenced notes provided, inshaAllah, with audio-visual aides.
